

MKSU celebrates 80th anniversary

The Catholic movement within the University campus, MKSU (Moviment Kattoliku Studenti Universitarji), is glad to celebrate its 80th anniversary this year with all its members, not only those who form part of University at this very moment, but also those who gave their contribution in the past to promote Christian values through social commitment among the students of the University of Malta. Being founded in 1929, the movement is still striving to achieve its goal, namely to reach out for students who, not only share the same beliefs, but are also not afraid to demonstrate them. This is especially more significant nowadays, given the present circumstances wherein it seems that people are shunned for praising the Lord.

Knowing the organisation's success in these past years, the committee will be taking care of a number of events spanning over a scholastic week to celebrate MKSU's 80th anniversary. Starting from Monday 20th April, an art exhibition will take place inside the University Common Room on campus, where several university students will not only demonstrate their talents to those attending, but will also display a number of art works on sale. The exhibition will run till Friday, 24th April.

On Tuesday, 21st April at 10:30am, the University Common Room will host the launch of the MKSU publication of Hide & Seek reflections on faith and culture in dialogue, a series of papers written by several Maltese academics, and compiled by two members of the organisation. We would like to thank all the contributors to this project, for their time and dedication have been precious to us. MKSU will animate the 12:30pm mass at the university Chapel on Wednesday 22nd as thanks giving to God for these 80 years of our movement on campus being witness of God's love to us all.

The celebrations will peak on Thursday 23rd April, with a Reunion for past MKSU executive members and all present members. This is expected to be a memorable event in which one meets old friends and renews friendships. The event will start at 7pm at the Students' House Common Room at the University and booking forms can be obtained from www.mksu.org.

We are all looking forward for this week of events to celebrate the hard work put into this organisation for 80 years, and the change brought about by the members throughout all this time.

For more information please phone or text to 7909 3854 or log on to www.mksu.org.

Chantelle Fenech
Public Relations

---